Hasten Hebrew Academy Chanukkah Campaign kick-off dinner Nov. 8. Noted author and lecturer Avivah Zornberg will be the special guest and speaker for the evening.

Dr. Zornberg was born in London and grew up in Glasgow, Scotland, where her father was a rabbi and the head of the Rabbinical Court. She studied with him from childhood; he was her most important teacher of Torah. She holds a BA and PhD in English literature from Cambridge University. After teaching English literature at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, she turned to teaching Torah. For the past 25 years, she has taught Torah in Jerusalem at Matan, Pardes and the Jerusalem College for Adults. Dr. Zornberg also holds a Visiting Lectureship at the London School of Jewish Studies. She travels widely, lecturing in Jewish, academic and psychoanalytic settings. Zornberg is the author of several books.

The Chanukah Campaign dinner will be held at the HHAI Cultural Arts Center and begins HHAI's annual fundraising campaign. The dollars raised through this campaign go a long way toward supporting the education your children receive at the Hasten Hebrew Academy. To attend the dinner a minimum donation of $250 per person or $500 per couple is required. Our Maccabee Society donors give a minimum of $2,500. Membership in this society includes attendance not only at the Chanukah dinner, but at the HAI-Life Awards dinner in the spring, as well. For those who are not able to donate in these amounts, we welcome any meaningful gift you can give. Every dollar donated is greatly appreciated.

Indiana Jewish Historical Society 2009 Annual meeting and brunch

The Indiana Jewish Historical Society invites you to its next annual meeting, on Sun., Oct. 25, noon, at the Broadmoor Country Club, 2155 Kessler Blvd., Indianapolis, Ind.

Rear Admiral Rabbi Harold L. Robinson, of the Chaplain Corps will attend as the guest speaker. He is the deputy chief of chaplains for Reserve matters and the director of religious programs for the Marine Reserves.

Rear Admiral Rabbi Harold Robinson was previously the rabbi of Temple Israel of Gary, Indiana (1974-1977), and two other congregations until 2006. He was commissioned as a chaplain in 1975. He has 34 years of experience as a military chaplain and has held numerous Reserve assignments. He currently serves as the director of the Massachusetts Jewish Welfare Board-Jewish Chaplains Council.

His presentation, "Jews in the U.S. Military, Past and Present," will give us insight into many ethical and religious questions Jews may have about military service.

The IJHS luncheon meeting will begin at noon with a welcome and introductions, followed by the brunch. At 1:00 p.m., the official 2009 Annual Meeting will begin. Executive director, president and nominating committee will report.

IJHS board members will be available to collect new archive material for our collections at the Indiana Historical Society. Please have all documents/photos identified, and in a protective envelope. Erin Hamilton, researcher for the History of the Indiana Jewish Scrap Business project, will give an overview of the project's goals.

At 1:30 p.m. the program by Rear Admiral Rabbi Harold Robinson will begin. A question and answer session will follow.

Reservations are required for the dairy brunch. This program is free and open to the public. You may attend the program without attending the brunch. The cost of the brunch is $20 per person. To make reservations, please send your check to the IJHS, 6301 Constitution Dr., Fort Wayne, Ind., 46804. Please list the names of those planning to attend the brunch. The deadline for making reservations is Wed., Oct. 21.

Rear Admiral

For more information contact the Indiana Jewish Historical Society at 260-459-6862, or indiana_jhs@verizon.net.

Rabbi Bram stable and resting

In the last weeks of September, just preceding Yom Kippur morning service, Rabbi Eric Bram was taken to the hospital in Cleveland. Rabbi Bram was the senior rabbi at Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation from 1995 to 2002 prior to Rabbi Lew Weiss, who was the interim rabbi prior to Rabbi Adland arriving.

Rabbi Bram was stable and resting after a biopsy done at the Cleveland Clinic. The doctors found a brain tumor and conducted tests to determine the appropriate course of action. The rabbi returned home to rest while the test results were analyzed. Rabbi Bram's rabbinic responsibilities at Cleveland's Suburban Temple - Kol Ami are being covered during this period. To those who have already offered assistance, please know that family and congregation are truly grateful and will keep this in mind.

For those of you who may

wish to send your personal prayers and wishes, the best way to contact the family is through cards, notes or via email with Suburban Temple - Kol Ami in Cleveland: Debbie's e-mail dbam@suburbantemple.org.

OBITUARIES

Herbert Falender, 93

Herbert Falender, lifelong resident of Indianapolis, died suddenly on Sept. 23, 2009. Beloved husband of the late Jane (nee Loewenstein); father of James (Fran), Andrew (Jacquelyn), and William (Carol); grandfather of five, Corinne Falender Blankenship (Monty), Sarah Falender, Laura Falender, Jason Falender, Rebecca Falender; and great-grandfather to Sawyer and Julia Blankenship. A memorial service was held on Sun., Oct. 4, 2009 at the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation. Memorial contributions may be made to Planned Parenthood of Indiana, 200 South Meridian St., P.O. Box 397, Indianapolis, IN 46206 or The Nature Conservancy, Ste 200, 1505 N. Delaware St., Indianapolis, IN 46202. Arrangements: Aaron-Ruben-Nelson Mortuary.

Blanche Lebowitz, 98

Blanche Lebowitz, of Indianapolis, died on Sept. 27, 2009. She worked as a legal stenographer prior to her moving to Indianapolis. She was a former member of Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation and the City of Hope. Blanche was an avid and devoted Maj Johg player. She is survived by her loving family: son, Joel (Lisa) Lebowitz, and daughter, Dee (David) Lutz; and five grandchildren, Avery and Sara Lebowitz, Garrett (Amy) Lutz, Michael (Stephannie) Lutz, Matthew (Amy) Lutz; nine great-grandchildren. Graveside services were held on Wed., Sept.

30, 2009 at the Indianapolis Hebrew Cemetery North. Memorial contributions may be made to City of Hope. Arrangements entrusted to: Aaron-Ruben-Nelson Mortuary.

Louis Peter Goldstein, 53

Louis Peter Goldstein, of Carmel, died early Sat., Oct. 24 at his home. He was an entrepreneur and a loving father and grandfather. He is survived by daughters, Rachel Goldstein, Jessica Goldstein (Steve Grigdesby); granddaughter, Emma Grigdesby; siblings, Todd Goldstein (Sevra), Susan Goldstein, Mark Goldstein (Patricia). There was a private memorial service held. Arrangements entrusted to Aaron-Ruben-Nelson Mortuary.

Pearl Alex Borinstein, 99

Pearl Alex Borinstein was born in Indianapolis on July 15, 1910 and died Sept. 29, 2009. She was happily married to Manuel A. Borinstein up until his death in 1975. They lived in Detroit, Mich., for many years before moving to Los Angeles. Always active in her community, Pearl was awarded two life memberships in the Beverly Hills PTA for her continuous work in the public schools.

Her creative abilities were unlimited. She expressed her love for her friends and family by creating exquisite and unusual parties. Pearl was renown for the hours she spent in her "gift wrapping room" where she donated her talents to not only wrap but also to teach others this unique art form.

Her philanthropic generosity continued by establishing the Manuel A. Borinstein Progressive Cardiac Care Center and the Pearl A. Borinstein Radiology Research Fund at Cendars Sinai Medical Center. She set up a website for the Discovery Eye Fund for Macular Degeneration. Ageless in spirit, Pearl was an active board member of the Jewish Home for the Aged - Ida May Cummings Auxiliary.

She is survived by her daughter Joan and her granddaughter Melanie Alex Borinstein. She was preceded in death by her sister Sara Shaw and brother Abe Axel, former Indianapolis residents. Her indomitable energy and loving spirit will be missed by all whose loves she touched. Funeral services were held on Thurs., Oct. 1, 2009 at the Hillside Mortuary. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to: Pearl A. Borinstein Memorial Fund c/o Ida May Cummings Aux. L.A. Jewish Home for the Aging, 7150 Tampa Ave., Reseda, CA 91335-3798.

IVCI Receives Award from Christel DeHaan Family Foundation

The International Violin Competition of Indianapolis (IVCI) has received a grant from the Christel DeHaan Family Foundation in honor of the children and families of Christel House in the amount of $30,000. This General Operating Support award will be used to underwrite the Original Composition for the 8th Quadrennial Competition to be held Sept. 10-26, 2010.

An Original Composition has been commissioned for each competition since its inception in 1982. It is included in the competition's repertoire in order to test the interpretive skills of the young artists in playing a piece that has no performance history. American composer Joan Tower has been chosen to write the work for the 2010 Competition.

The International Violin Competition of Indianapolis (IVCI) recognizes, rewards, and promotes the world's finest young classical violinists, and encourages understanding, appreciation, and support of the violin repertoire by a large and diverse audience. The IVCI utilizes its world prominence to bring international attention to Indianapolis, and maintains its efforts to be a visible and collaborative member of the arts communities in Indianapolis and Indiana. For more information about the IVCI, visit www.violin.org.

Woods College is committed to making higher education affordable. Each year SMWC awards six $6,000 scholarships and six $3,000 scholarships to graduate students who demonstrate financial need as assessed by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) results. SMWC has also partnered with several businesses to provide their employees with a 10 percent tuition discount when they enroll in one of SMWC's graduate programs or the College's Woods External Degree (WED) program.

The newest graduate programs at SMWC are the Master of Education program and the Master of Leadership Development program. These accelerated programs, which are designed to be completed in one year, incorporate a hybrid delivery model that allows students to complete the programs while continuing to work full time.

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) program is designed for practicing teachers with at least two years of teaching experience. The program's curriculum focuses on the development of leadership skills and excellent teaching, empowering teachers to integrate collaborative technology tools and other pedagogical resources to address diverse student needs and circumstances.

The Master of Leadership Development (MLD) program is open to women and men in all types of organizations and businesses including for-profit, not-for-profit, civic, education, religious, and government. The program is designed to develop leaders with critical thinking and problem-solving skills who can effectively and ethically lead an organization in the global environment today and in the future.

The Master of Arts in Earth Literacy (ELM) program uses interdisciplinary learning to foster the capacity to understand the world in order to promote sustainability. The Masters of Arts in Art Therapy (MAAT) program is designed for persons who utilize or plan to utilize art in therapy or art as therapy, and the Masters of Arts in Music Therapy (MAMT) program welcomes qualified music therapists seeking an advanced understanding of the therapeutic uses of music.

To register for the Graduate Studies Open House at Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College, or for more information about graduate studies at SMWC, contact the Office of Distance & Graduate Admission by phone at 800-499-0373 or by e-mail at gradadms@smwc.edu.
